DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to to Section 203(b)(2)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2)(A) as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree or an alien of exceptional ability. The director determined that the petitioner did not demonstrate the beneficiary possessed the minimum qualifications for the proffered job, or that the petitioner possessed the continued ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date, nor did the petitioner establish that the petition was supported by a bona fide job offer.

Counsel dated the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal of Motion, was submitted on March 27, 2015. On that form, the petitioner indicated that additional evidence or a brief would be submitted within 30 days. As of this date, more than 4 months later, the AAO has received nothing further, and the regulation requires that any brief shall be submitted directly to the AAO. 8 C.F.R. §§ 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. He has not even expressed disagreement with the director's decision. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
